

Hands-On-Adventure!

Role-playing gaming in American Sign Language.

What

Have you ever read a book, and wished you could be the character sharing in the adventure? Now you can! Participants gather around a table for interactive shared adventures using just paper, pencil, dice, and their imaginations. Just bring yourself, your ASL signing skills, your imagination and a willingness to have fun! The get together is completely free. Everyone is encouraged to bring some munchies and beverages to share.

When

To be scheduled based on availability and participants. This will be at least once per month, and potentially as frequently as once per week. Sessions typically run about 3 hours.

Who

Anyone proficient in American Sign Language (ASL), but most especially anyone from the Deaf or Hard of Hearing community.

Where

RPG Research: 1213 North Monroe Suite 114, Spokane, Washington, USA.
